SPOKANE, Wash. (AP) — A Spokane public relations man was shot to death and his daughter was abducted Thursday night in front of the radio-television station where she worked.

Two hours later, two policemen arrested 20-year-old Max Earle Markham in a car on a bank of the Spokane River east of here near the Washington-Idaho border.

The girl, Nancy Powle, 20, was with him. Police Chief Clifford Payne said she was very upset but was not hurt.

Chief Payne said Markham had a submachine gun, a hunting rifle, a .45 automatic pistol, a hunting knife and about 25 pounds of ammunition in his car. He did not resist arrest.

Chief Payne quoted Markham as saying, "I shot him. I suppose he's dead."

No motive for the shooting has been established.

The chief said he understood Nancy and young Markham had attended the same Spokane high school.

Powle was shot about 11:30 p.m. as he arrived at the studio of KHQ Radio-TV to pick up his daughter, night receptionist at the station. This was Powle's nightly habit.

Youth Week Monday at Methodist

Monday night at 6 begins the Youth Activity Week at First Methodist Church in Hope, to continue through Friday night, July 20.

Brooks Holfield, pre-ministerial student at Hendrix College, Conway, will speak each night from "The Diary of a Teenage Rebel," a series of stream of consciousness excerpts relating the feelings of the main character, the Rebel. Each "Diary" is followed by a sermon which amplifies its main points.

During the day Holfield will be at the church to meet the youth personally.

Other activities will include fellowship meals, groups, recreation, discussion and closing moments of worship. Holfield will lead the senior discussion group and Teddy Jones Jr., is junior high discussion leader.

"Way Out West" is the theme for Monday evening's recreation which will be western style and all the "buckeroos" are to dress in western outfits.

Although this week is sponsored by the Methodist Church, other youth, ages 12 to 20 are invited to participate. Each youth is to bring a sack supper Thursday night. Otherwise the WSCS and the Century Bible Class will provide sack suppers.

Each night something different is planned for recreation and closing devotionals.

Appeal Is Taken on Weight Case

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—State pay warrants issued Thursday contained the names of two workers in the campaign headquarters of Gov. Orval E. Faubus but the governor's office said it was all a mistake.

Included on the payroll posted with the state Auditor were Mrs. Janice N. McFarlane and Mrs. Steva P. Orton, both clerical workers in the governor's office on leave to aid in his campaign.

Robert Medlock, an administrative aide to Faubus, said pay warrants for the two were issued through an oversight and the warrants "won't go through."

Mrs. Patsy Ellis, an administrative aide also on leave to work in Faubus' campaign headquarters, said both women left the governor's office several days ago and this resulted in the mixup.

Other Faubus-associated personnel on temporary leave include Arnold B. Sikes and John Brown, both aides.

Roadblocks Set Up for Bank Bandits

ATKINS, Ark. (AP)—FBI agents and State Police brought six men into the Bank of Atkins today to see if employees could connect them with a $16,879 robbery pulled at noon Thursday.

J. M. Barker Jr., the bank president, said one of the six "might have been" on the robbery team.

"I was looking down the barrel of one gun all the time and two guns part of the time," Barker said. "I'm not sure about the man."

Officers declined to identify the suspect.

State Police said some roadblocks were being maintained in the Atkins area and an intensive search was under way in the Bigelow area of nearby Perry County.

Fifteen FBI agents questioned Atkins residents who might have seen the two poorly dressed gunmen or the blonde woman who reportedly waited for them in the getaway car—a late model Buick.

One of the robbers forced cashier C. A. Barker, brother of the president, into the vault for money. Bookkeeper Minnie Speer and the president had to get money from cash drawers.

The bank's safe was not opened, Barker said.

The three bank employees then were forced into the vault but the outside door broke when the robbers slammed it and the employees got free.

One of the robbers was described by the FBI as having a heavy beard. Both were dressed in dirty clothes. One was short and the other tall. They were believed to be in their late 20s or early 30s.

The $17,200 robbery was the largest bank holdup in Arkansas since Feb. 2, 1959 when the Bank of Weiner was robbed by four men of $22,988.

The FBI said Thursday's robbery was the seventh in the state since Dec. 30, 1958.

Only one of these, besides Thursday's, remains unsolved.

Briefly, here is a description of bank robberies in Arkansas during the past five years:

March 5, 1959, two men robbed the Bank of Elkins of $4,928. This remains unsolved.

Feb. 3, 1959, the Bank of Tucker was robbed of $2,919 by a lone bandit. James Thomas Gibson of Jonesboro was convicted and sentenced to four years in prison.

Feb. 2, 1959, four men held up the Bank of Weiner and got $22,988 and were arrested and convicted.

Dec. 30, 1958, four men got $7,000 in a holdup at the Sherrill, Ark., branch of the Simmons National Bank of Pine Bluff. They were arrested and convicted.

The seat belt venture is not regarded by the AAC as a money making enterprise, but if 1,000 Arkansans were to buy and have installed a set of the belts an equally staggering sum of money might, indirectly, be realized—on the plus side.

Frank M. Potter, the AAC's executive secretary, who is handling the venture, said any service station interested in the program will be able to participate.

It is envisioned that a single belt, installed, will cost less than $10, slightly above cost. The average market price for seat belts runs nearly $15.

Both Potter and Dr. Morris feel strongly that legislation to require installation of such a safety device is the wrong approach to the problem.

Weisenberger Is Candidate for Chancery

The Star is authorized to make the following announcement as shown in the newspaper's political announcement column.

"I have been trying and will continue to try until July 31, with the help of my wife and two sons, to personally ask you for your help in the race for Chancellor to succeed Judge Ben Shaven, who is not a candidate, Judge Wesley Howard, the first division Chancellor, is not up for re-election this time. So many of you are already helping in this nine-county campaign that we are almost overwhelmed. Thank you, everyone."

"Please consider this, also, as a sincere request for your active support and vote. I need and want it badly. In a district race, the written or spoken recommendations of persons like you offer determine who is elected. My duty as Prosecuting Attorney must come first and have limited my campaign time."

"I am grateful to you for the opportunity to be your Prosecuting Attorney. The wonderful vote I received in Hempstead and Nevada Counties particularly contributed to my election. Every vote for me helped very much and was and is deeply appreciated. I sincerely solicit the support of these and all other citizens at this time."

"I have tried civil cases in all 9 counties of the Sixth Chancery District. I am dependent on the practice of law for a living, having no other business or holdings. Most of my clients have been average Americans. I have much experience helping obtain support for dependent children from 'run-away' parents and in teaching and working with youngsters, and helping juveniles, when possible, to salvage themselves."

"Chancery and Probate Courts have no juries or criminal cases. They handle domestic relations cases, frauds, restraining orders, other equity matters, wills, estates, guardianships, support and custody of children, minors, adoptions, committing of incompetents and alcoholics to the State Hospital, etc."

"I seek this promotion on my own worthiness for advancement and my own qualifications as a lawyer and a man. I have a sincere desire to serve you, and to serve you well. I have not and will not in public office side with or represent certain individuals or groups. I will not unduly delay the cases people have in Court. I urge you to check the Criminal Law Court and Chancery Court dockets for cases the Prosecuting Attorney's office is connected with in your county. You will find them in good condition. I will work and study hard to administer justice based on the law, common sense and human understanding equitably to all our people with patience and firmness."

"No relative of mine or my wife has ever been a Judge or even run for district office. Like most lawyers, I would like to be a Judge. Yet, I am asking this honor for the first time, asking a promotion, if you please."

"My one promise is to use all my ability, my training, my knowledge of the law and problems of human beings to make you a Chancery and Probate Judge you will be proud you helped to elect."

"Sincerely yours,
Royce Weisenberger"

2 Tie in Poppy Sales Contest

The Legion Auxiliary contest for the member who sold the greatest number of poppies in the state resulted in a tie between Miss Cooke Jones and Miss Margie Herndon of Hope Unit 12. $30.75 was collected and each distributed 150 poppies. The girls will receive a gold-filled poppy pin.

This announcement was made recently by the American Legion Auxiliary Department of Arkansas at the State Convention held at Little Rock.

Approval would give Brazil a cabinet for the first time in 17 years. Rejection would force Rocha to quit and renew the deadlock between the conservative-dominated Parliament and President Joao Goulart, whose Labor party is in the minority.

Rocha represents Goulart's third attempt in the past two weeks to form a new government to deal with Brazil's deepening economic troubles, marked in recent days by food riots which left more than a dozen persons dead.

Rocha is a member of the middle-of-the-road Social Democratic party and his nomination to the prime minister's post won overwhelming approval from the chamber last Monday. But this was not considered a guarantee he could get approval for his program or his cabinet.

In presenting his choices for cabinet posts to the chamber Thursday night, Rocha promised to put forth immediately an emergency plan to deal with the growing problems of Latin America's biggest nation. He said the program will include "short term solutions" to such problems as food shortages, spiraling inflation and agrarian and institutional reform.

The governmental crisis began late last month when Prime Minister Tancredo Neves and his cabinet resigned to become eligible under the constitution to run for re-election to Parliament.

Goulart first nominated Neves' foreign minister, Francisco San Tiago Dantas, to succeed him. But many conservative deputies considered Dantas too friendly toward Castro's Cuba and his nomination was rejected.

Goulart then named a conservative, Senate President Auro Moura de Andrade, whom the chamber approved. But Andrade quit after only 3 hours in office in a dispute with Goulart over selection of ministers for the air force and navy.

The only program they mention is foreign aid, he said. But the main trouble with foreign aid, Fulbright pointed out, is that it is not understood.

These critics, Fulbright said, say they aren't talking about federal participation in road building, river development, rural electrification program or Social Security.

On a more personal subject, Fulbright said his opponents consider him a liberal because he supports federal action in many areas.

Brazil Will Decide Vital Cabinet Issue

BRASILIA, Brazil (AP) — The Chamber of Deputies decides today whether to accept a predominantly nonpolitical cabinet and end the governmental crisis that prompted President Kennedy to postpone his visit to Brazil for the second time in a year.

The deputies were summoned to special session to vote on the list of ministers submitted by Prime Minister Francisco Brochard do Rocha.

Approval would give Brazil a cabinet for the first time in 17 years. Rejection would force Rocha to quit and renew the deadlock between the conservative-dominated Parliament and President Joao Goulart, whose Labor party is in the minority.

3-Billions Cut Seen in Defense Cost

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP)—Lt. Gen. Andrew T. McNamara predicted Wednesday night his Defense Department agency would reduce military expenditures of the nation by $3 billion in the next five years.

McNamara heads the defense supply agency of the Department of Defense. He was in Hot Springs to address from 250 delegates to the 15th annual conference of the National Association of State Agencies for Surplus Property.

McNamara said his agency would become a valuable member of the defense team. He said it would be, "A sought after wholesaler who will relieve the logistics burden of the operating forces and furnish a new order of effectiveness in supply and services."

"Experts have predicted that the agency, when fully operative, will save up to $2 billion annually in military outlay. An immediate savings of $250 million has been foreseen," he said.

Reduction of military inventory to essentials and maintenance of a balance between requirements and supply were promised by McNamara.

Defense Secretary Robert McNamara set up the new agency to procure, manage and distribute supplies which the armed services use in common. The agency does not deal in weapons. Gen. McNamara is not related to the secretary.

The speaker said a downward trend in the amount of surplus goods available recently was caused by the callup of the National Guard and Reserve forces and by a general buildup of combat strength.

Only four per cent of the total military material is classified as surplus, he said. A large amount of this is hazardous material that must be destroyed.

Delegates are scheduled to hear Gov. Orval E. Faubus today. The conference ends Friday.

of a stabilization program to correct the chaotic condition in the egg industry and yet not cost the American taxpayer one red cent.

Mr. Silvey, who is president of the Southwest Arkansas Poultry Producers Assn., was elected vice president of the broiler division of the U.S. Poultry and Egg Producers Assn. Bruce Eaker of Woodstock, N.C., was elected president of the broiler division and a vice president of the USPEPA, which is the only nationwide organization of farm broiler growers and egg producers.

Arthur W. Mimmell of McCaskill who accompanied Mr. Silvey to Washington, also reported before members of the local association who gathered at Bodewell for a potluck supper and the reports of the Washington Conference.

Mr. Mimmell quoted Secretary Orville Freeman of the USDA, as saying any acceptable stabilization for either eggs or broilers "must be directed by grower producers, such producers to be defined as men and women who day by day actively manage and direct their farm operations as owners of their land and facilities."

The USPEPA conference was attended by broiler and egg farm producers from 19 states from the Pacific Coast to the New England States, and including most of the southern states. These men represented 18 state and regional organizations of working poultrymen.

In their resolutions, the poultrymen urged the National Broiler Advisory Committee to take immediate action to develop a program to help the entire industry, including the broiler producers. The committee was criticized for inaction and lack of true grower representation.

The growers will ask Congress to revise present tax laws to prevent agricultural "write-offs" by parties whose primary business is not farming. They will also seek legislation to restrict allied industry groups from engaging in farm production and the Attorney General is being asked to investigate all vertical integration operations and pricing, marketing procedures and credit arrangements.

The farm producer of broilers and eggs would like for Congress to investigate all association's claiming to speak for the independent poultry farmer so that "flagrant misrepresentation by non-farm groups will be eliminated."

Fertilizer Plane Falls Killing Man

DE WITT, Ark. (AP)—A fertilizer plane crashed and burned in a soybean field today, killing a transient pilot from New York City.

Robert Leckey, 27, died when his plane spun out on a turn, nosed into the ground and caught fire.

Hartley Smith, owner of the Smith Flying Service for whom Leckey was working, said the pilot was fertilizing rice on the Melvin Hall farm four miles north of De Witt when the crash occurred in the adjacent soybean field of Virgil Hall.

Survivors include his widow and two children, both of New York City.

DOROTHY DIX

Did Love Come Too Late?

By HELEN WORDEN ERSKINE

Dear Helen: Though married and the mother of six children, I can honestly say I never knew love till the beginning of this year when I met a man who was all that my husband should have been but wasn't. Kind, Thoughtful, Good to the children, Affectionate, Generous. I could rave on and on.

He said he would wait to the end of time for me, treat my children like his own and devote the rest of his life to making me happy. Last month I got up courage to ask my husband for a divorce. In his usual laconic way he replied that he would have to consider the question not a single expression of surprise concern as to where he had failed me, or regret that I should want to leave him.

Days passed without further mention. Then he suddenly issued his ultimatum. I could have a divorce on one condition: he get the children. That was a terrible promise to exact. How could a mother be parted from her children? Yet, how can I give up this man who has come to mean all the world to me? He begs me to think this over, fearing that if he be the cause of my losing the children I shall eventually hate him.

Until I make up my mind, we must not see each other again. That was two weeks ago. The intervening days have been the most miserable of my whole life. One phone call will bring him back but I fear to make it. How can I be sure that hot love and not cool reason is blinding me?

—Desperate

Dear Desperate: Much as I sympathize, I could not in all conscience advise you to part with your children. No matter what the sacrifice, they come first.

The other man is right. You would hate him and, even worse—hate yourself, if they were barred for your freedom. The shocking realization that their mother could forsake them for a man whom she had known less than a year while still married to their father might very well wreck their future. Without them, life would be a vacuum.

Are you mistaking infatuation for the real thing? Could a judge, in all honesty, grant you a divorce when your husband's only fault is inability to inspire love in you?

Dear Helen: I'm the laughing stock of our crowd because I wept when school closed last month and choked up over parting with my teachers. I feel just as badly over saying goodbye to summer vacation and friends in the country. To conceal my feelings, I have become a nail-biter. What's wrong with me? I don't want the other kids to think me a baby even though 14 years old. Please help. —Sad Sue

Dear Sad: You might have the makings of a writer, or poet. What you regard as faults namely super-sensitivity, an overactive imagination and too-responsive nature, are essential to the creative mind. Are you a reader? Is English a favorite study? If not, it could be well to give attention to these subjects when you return to school. Ask your teachers. Meanwhile, stop worrying about melancholy moods. Sadness is part of youth.

Dear Helen: I am a widow with grown children, now married. Although employed in the sales department of a big organization where I come in daily contact with people, time still hangs heavy. My friends are for the most part married. As a result I feel like a fifth wheel at their parties. I realize my boredom, restlessness and loneliness stem from lack of companionship. Yet there must be a solution to this problem. How can we lonely ones get together? —Nell B.

Dear Nell: See these lonely hours as a golden opportunity to develop a latent talent or interest. Choose one entirely apart from your daily work; something which you've always longed to do but lacked the time. Join a class or a group specializing in the subject of your choice, be it painting, writing, playing the piano, designing clothes, cooking, languages or whatever. Friendships with kindred spirits will prove a happy by-product.

Send your problem to Helen Worden Erskine. Be sure to enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope and address her care of this newspaper. Helpful leaflets available. Write for "Don't Be Lonely."

Hawaii Girl Is Picked as Miss U. S. A.

By THEODORE A. EDIGER

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP)—A dreamy-eyed Hawaiian beauty on her first visit to the mainland reigns today as Miss U.S.A.

Macl Leilani Wilson of Honolulu, chosen the fairest in the land Thursday night from among the queens of 40 states, competes tonight and Saturday for the Miss Universe title. Also seeking the honor are delegates from 50 nations.

"I needed the money to go to school," said sweet Leilani. She plans to attend San Francisco City College.

But school may have to wait until she completes a $5,000 contract she will receive for public appearances. Her crown also entitles her to $1,000 cash.

"My father told me not to settle for anything but first place," said the 19-year-old girl who earns $250 a month as a receptionist. Her father, Harry Wilson Jr., is a plumber. He and Mrs. Wilson recently moved from Honolulu to San Francisco. He is Hawaiian, Chinese and English; Mrs. Wilson is Portuguese.

Macl has dark brown hair and eyes, is 5 feet, 1/2 inches tall and weighs 120. She said she measured 35-24-35 when she left home, but now is a 36-23 1/2-35 1/2.

Trade Bill Will Pass — Fulbright

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Sen. J. William Fulbright, D - Ark., believes President Kennedy's trade bill has a good chance of passage in the Senate Finance Committee.

In one of his periodic letters to voters, Fulbright said the bill, already approved by the House, provides a replacement for out-moded reciprocal trade agreements.

Fulbright favors the bill, which authorizes the president to cut tariffs by 50 per cent in negotiating with other nations for reciprocal trade concessions or to reduce or eliminate tariffs altogether on articles in which the United States and the Common Market provide for 80 per cent of the free world trade.

The bill also would provide assistance to employees and companies who suffer economic damage from import competition.

Fulbright said expansion of foreign markets for American goods is essential to the national economy, and particularly to Arkansas.

Fulbright said Arkansas has the highest percentage of employment attributable to exports of any state in the Union.

Orioles Lose on Indians' Pinch Hit

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

Chuck Essegian, Cleveland's early season power pitcher, has slipped his change.

The 20-year-old outfielder, whose batting average dropped 101 points since he reached his peak May 20, was tapped for pinch hitting early Thursday night and responded with a three-run homer that powered the Indians to a 6-4 triumph over Baltimore.

It was only the second homer and seventh run batted in for Essegian since he hit six homers in six games, batted in six runs in 1961 and seemed finally to have found his spot at Cleveland after spending eight years with 19 different clubs in organized baseball.

Relegated to occasional appearances by his awful slump, Essegian came up against the Orioles after Willie Tashy had struck a two-run pinch single, tying it 3-3 in the ninth. Essegian then hit home run No. 14.

The victory moved the second-place Indians within .004 points of the American League-leading New York Yankees, beaten by third-place Los Angeles 5-4 as Felix Torres drove in four runs for the Angels.

Elsewhere, Washington out-homered Minnesota 7-4 in 10 innings. Chicago White Sox left-hander Juan Pizarro fired a two-hitter that beat Detroit 3-2 and Kansas City and Boston split a doubleheader. The Athletics won the opener 5-4, the Red Sox took the nightcap 9-4 in 11 innings.

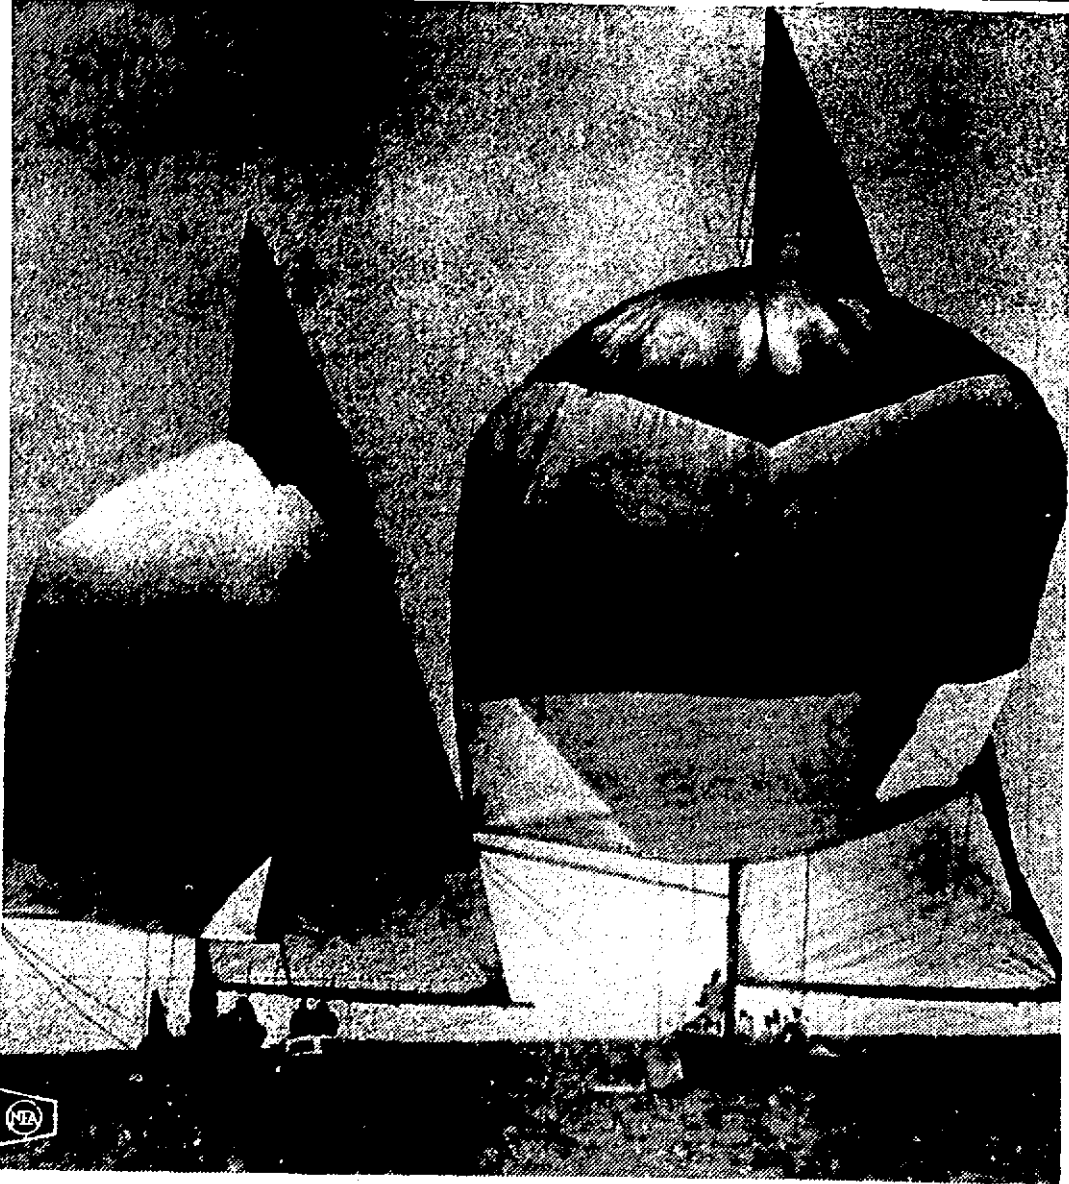

In the National League, the first-place Los Angeles Dodgers blanked the New York Mets 3-0 and remained a half-game in front of San Francisco. Third-place Pittsburgh defeated Houston 6-4. Milwaukee whipped St. Louis 8-6 and Cincinnati belted the Chicago Cubs 8-1.

Torres' first inning triple with the bases loaded and a single by Lee Thomas sent the Angels into a 4-0 lead against the Yankees. Torres' sacrifice fly in the third inning drove in Leon Wagner with the deciding run. Wagner had doubled—the only Los Angeles hit off loser Whitey Ford (7-5) and Jim Coates after the first inning. The Yanks pushed across four runs in the seventh before Dean Chance got Roger Maris on a pop out to end it and preserve the victory for Ted Bowfield (5-3).

Jim King's second homer, a two-run shot that snapped a 4-4 tie in the 10th, followed by Harry Bright's solo homer, ended the Senators' seven-game losing streak and extended the fourth-place Twins' skid to five games. Chuck Cutler also homered for Washington while Harmon Killebrew (No. 19), Bob Allison and Earl Battey connected for Minnesota. Dave Stenhouse (7-4) was the winner with a seven-hit effort. Ray Moore (4-3) lost it.

Pizarro (8-7) struck out seven while posting his fourth consecutive triumph. He had difficulty only with Steve Boros, who doubled and scored the first Tiger run, then doubled to drive in the other. The White Sox got their first run on Luis Aparicio's triple and a grounder by Camilo Carreon, scored their second on Joe Cunningham's homer and beat Don Mossi (7-10) in the eighth when Jim Landis doubled and Nellie Fox singled.

The Red Sox tied the opener

Batting Race as Close as the National

By JIM HACKLEMAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

While the Los Angeles Dodgers and San Francisco Giants duel for National League supremacy, there's another tight little battle for the batting lead—where three batters named Hank Aaron, Frank Robinson and Roberto Clemente are providing a stiff challenge to the Dodgers' Tommy Davis.

Davis managed only a single Thursday night, but drove in his 91st run of the season as the Dodgers beat the last-place New York Mets for the 10th time in 11 games 3-0, getting a combined three-hitter from Sandy Koufax and Larry Sherry.

Meanwhile, Aaron climaxed a four-hit night with a ninth-inning, bases-loaded homer that gave Milwaukee an 8-6 victory over St. Louis. Robinson had three hits and batted in three runs, including the clincher, in Cincinnati's 8-4 decision over Chicago; and Clemente helped Pittsburgh trim Houston 6-4 with three hits.

The heroics left Davis with a .353 average while Clemente climbed to .348, Robinson to .344 and Aaron to .336.

In the NL's other game, Willie Mays—muddling along these days at the .308 mark—collected three singles and flashed some fancy stuff on the bases in leading the Giants over Philadelphia 5-3. The victory kept San Francisco right at the Dodgers' heels—a half game behind.

In the American League, Los Angeles held off New York's front-running Yankees 5-4, Cleveland climbed to within four percentage points of the Yanks with a 6-4 decision over Baltimore. Washington beat Minnesota 7-4 in 10 innings, Chicago edged Detroit 3-2 and Boston gained a split with Kansas City winning the second game 9-4 in 11 innings after losing the opener 5-4.

Dodger southpaw Sandy Koufax, bothered by a sore pitching hand but able to go seven strong innings, won his 14th against four losses in his first meeting with the Mets since he no-hit them June 30. The clever southpaw allowed three hits and struck out six before giving way to Larry Sherry, who held the Mets hitless the last two innings.

The Giants built up a 5-0 lead behind Jack Sanford but the right-hander weakened after holding the Phils to four hits through six innings and needed relief from Stu Miller in the late going. Mays singled across the first run in the opening inning against loser Jack Hamilton and scored the clincher in the fifth with some of his devil-may-care base running.

Hank Aaron rapped his grand slam off Cardinal relief star Lindy McDaniel, who had not given up an earned run in 15 appearances dating back to May 31. Hank's kid brother Tommy ignited the Brave rally in the ninth with a pinch homer against Larry Jackson.

The Pirates, holding third place 3 1/2 games behind the Dodgers, played long ball in winning against Houston. Dick Stuart homered with Bob Skinner aboard in the first, Smokey Burgess connected after a walk to Stuart and a single by Clemente in the third, and Skinner homered with the bases empty in the sixth.

Top Horses Entered for Hollywood

By JOHN CHANDLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

A glittering array of racing's brightest stars will shoot at six major stakes Saturday in the richest afternoon of the 1962 season. Kelso, Ridan, T.V. Lark, Carry Back, Prove It, Cleada, Crimson Satan, Bramalea, Admiral's Voyage and others will join the big coast-to-coast greenback gallop worth half a million dollars.

The $12,000-guaranteed Hollywood Gold Cup is the richest of the day. Another lush prize is the $100,000-added Monmouth Park Handicap.

Mrs. Richard C. duPont's Kelso, twice horse of the year; Mrs. Katherine Price's Carry Back, the 1961 champion 3 year old colt and Jack Dreyfus, Jr.'s Beau Purple, who upset them both in the July 4th Suburban, top the battle of Monmouth.

Rex C. Ellsworth holds a big hand at Hollywood Park with a powerful entry of Prove It and Olden Times, opposing Preston Madden's T.V. Lark. Swaps won the 1956 Gold Cup for Ellsworth, a year after he upset Nashua in the Kentucky Derby.

The J.G.W. Stable's Ridan and Fred W. Hoper's Admiral's Voyage hook in the $75,000-added Arlington Classic. Peter W. Salmen, Sr.'s Crimson Satan is the favorite for the 75,000-added Dwyer Handicap at Aqueduct. The Classic and Dwyer are for 3-year-olds.

Meadow Stable's Cicada, Champion 2-year-old filly last year, and Darby Dan Farm's Bramalea are standouts in the $50,000-added Oaks for 3-year-old fillies at Delaware Park. J. Graham Brown's Run For Nurse tops the $25,000-added Detroit Sweepstakes.

the Pirates: Houston starter Jim Golden was the loser.

The Reds exploded with a vengeance in their ninth inning rally that routed the Cubs, pouring across four runs on Don Blasingame's triple, a double by Robinson, Gada Pinson's single and Leo Cardenas' triple which came after an intentional walk to John Edwards. Robinson, on a 14-game hitting streak, has batted out 12 hits in his last 17 at bats, with 11 runs batted in and 11 scored.

Griffith Is Favored to Beat Dupas

By BOB MYERS
Associated Press Sports Writer

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP)—Hard hitting Emile Griffith of New York remained the favorite to retain his world welterweight championship tonight against elusive Ralph Dupas of New Orleans.

The 15-round match, which will not be carried by radio nor television in this country, will be fought in the Las Vegas Convention Center.

Griffith, 23-year-old native of the Virgin Islands, was listed at 2-5 in the betting odds to turn back the challenge of his 26-year-old opponent. Dupas is ranked as the No. 1 contender.

Emile regained the championship last March 24 in New York when he knocked out Benny (Kid) Paret in the 12th round. Ten days later the Cuban kid died.

In contrast to previous title matches here, chairman James Deskins of the Nevada State Athletic Commission said the mandatory eight-count and three knockdown rules will be in effect. This means a fighter felled must be given at least eight counts and if a fighter is dropped three times in a single round the match will be stopped.

Dupas has been a professional for 12 years. He has had 115 bouts, won 94, lost 15 and drew in six. Griffith has had only 32 ring engagements and is a far more explosive performer. Of his 29 wins, 11 were by knockouts.

Palmer Near 2nd Straight British Title

TRONON, Scotland (AP)—Arnold Palmer smashed all records for the Old Tron course today with a five-under-par 35-32-7 and shot into a five-stroke lead over Australia's Kel Nagle in the battle for the British Open Golf Championship.

Palmer had a 54-hole score of 207 and Nagle, shooting a two-under-par 70, in their head-to-head duel, followed at 212.

None of the other 41 survivors in this oldest of championships was in contention as players prepared for the final round this afternoon in the exhausting 3-hole windup.

Bob Charles of New Zealand was the biggest threat to Palmer and Nagle with 215 after firing a third-round 70.

The defending champion, Palmer, made one of his typical surging finishes as he blazed around the back nine of the tough, 7,045-yard layout in 32, four under par.

At this stage, Palmer was nine under par for the tournament and the rugged Nagle was four under. Nagle is the big, florid-faced Sydney pro who beat out Palmer by a stroke for the British Open Championship in 1960 at St. Andrews.

None of the other four surviving Americans made a serious bid for contention.

Sam Snead, 50, the slammer from White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., fired an even par 72 for 221. Jack Nicklaus, the U.S. Open champion from Columbus, Ohio, who barely squeezed into the final day's play, turned in a 74 for 22. Don Essig, the former Public Links champion from Indianapolis, skied to a 79 for 22 at the three-quarter point.

Phil Rodgers, La Jolla, Calif., who started the day five strokes back of Palmer, had a one-under-par 35 for the front nine.

There are about 133 physicians and 57 dentists per 100,000 persons in the U. S. population.
